

Services for the Energy and Natural Resources sector

Dynamic business environment

Energy markets around the world are undergoing great changes. At Grant Thornton we collaborate with our clients to overcome challenges, reaching the solutions they need to take advantage of the opportunities in these dynamic environments.

Why Grant Thornton?

We have extensive experience advising teams in companies from energy and natural resources industries. Our global network allows us to support our clients in the expansion of their business and provide them with our experience and knowledge in the field.

We have experienced teams capable of working throughout the entire life cycle of the project. We specialize in financing, post-deal integration in mergers and acquisitions, and revenue extraction models.

Our expertise extends to:

- Access to alternative and traditional financing
- Output planning and structuring transactions
- Modeling capital projects and operating cost control
- Commercialization of new approaches and technologies
- Construction of sustainable businesses and stakeholder management
- Establishment of a robust governance framework and risk management
- Audit of financial statements

Our services

Clean energy and technologies

In this context of growing demand, development of new forms of energy and urgency for a sustainable future, it is essential to manage changes and stay one step ahead of competitors.

Mining

With the expansion of the limits of exploitation, it is necessary to consider a wider range of government policies, legislation, and sectoral relations to achieve the social legitimacy that allows the development of mining projects.

At Grant Thornton, we help clients understand legislation and other issues, beyond borders, to minimize risks and maximize options.

Oil & gas

Our oil and gas team has deep knowledge, extensive experience and the vision to offer clients practical solutions tailored to their business.

We are Grant Thornton

Grant Thornton is a leading consultancy firm contributing to clients' development and innovation. Our brand is acknowledged around the world as one of the main global accounting organizations recognized by capital markets, regulators and global entities that set international standards. We are in constant evolution and development in alignment with our clients.

Global reach and agility

As a $8,5 billion global organization, with member firms employing more than 80.000 people in more than 150 markets, we have the reach to meet our clients' many needs, with the insight and agility to always be one step ahead.

Private companies, publicly traded companies and public sector clients come to us for our know-how and capabilities across industries and markets.

We are well known due to our special work methodology. Our partners and teams invest the time to fully understand each business, providing a real perspective that allows the progress of each project, whether nationally or internationally.

Reason and instinct

At Grant Thornton, we use the concepts "reason and instinct" to express our culture and approach.

We combine technical excellence and rigor with intuitive judgment and insight. We believe that this combination results in better relationships, a deeper understanding of our clients' needs and allows us to offer them better advice.

Every day we make a difference for our clients and allies. We truly care about helping them achieve their goals and prosper.

We are the fastest-growing international professional services network with technology powered by AI, grounded in human insight, and shaping better futures for our people, our clients, and our communities.

Our impact

At Grant Thornton we are passionately committed to making a positive impact in the communities we belong to.

Alongside our collaborators, clients and strategic partners, we build relationships that strengthen our company and allow us to make informed and responsible decisions implementing the best solutions.

Aligned with Grant Thornton Int., we participate in activities that promote:

- Health care: we collaborate with important prevention and education activities
- Assistance to communities and individuals to grow, develop and unlock their potential
- Collaboration with social organizations and NGOs to support people in vulnerable situations

One of the common threads running through all of our impact initiatives is helping young people fulfill their potential through education.
